

Matched-domain contrasts depend on weighting

A Full range, interquartile range and median across all 82,944 settings

B Fraction of groups with a negative contrast in every input order

All guides, matching policies, masks, domain boundaries and coverage screens are retained. Settings are dependent. Ranges describe sensitivity, not confidence intervals. Contrasts are unadjusted; phylogenetic models and calibration remain pending.